

The Annual Review of Interdisciplinary Justice Research
Volume 13, 2024

Edited by
Steven Kohm, Kevin Walby, Kelly Gorkoff,
Katharina Maier, Bronwyn Dobchuk-Land,
Alex Tepperman, and Marcella Siqueira Cassiano

The University of Winnipeg
Centre for Interdisciplinary Justice Studies (CIJS)
ISSN 1925-2420 (Print)
ISSN 2816-4253 (Online)

Table of Contents

Research Articles:

“It can feel like an abusive relationship”: A Sensory Psychosocial Investigation of Frontline Domestic Violence Shelter Workers’ Experiences
Cristina Ariza .....3

“Would you want a jail on your street?” Sensing Opposition and Support for a Youth Detention Centre in Ottawa
Elizabeth Venczel and Justin Piché.....28

Tuning In: Sound, Listening, and the Development of an Aural Criminology
Michael S. Mopas.....53

Problematizing Perpetual Punishment: Tensions and Impacts Across News Reports and Lived Realities of the Canadian Life Sentence
Nyki Kish and Tamara Humphrey.....89

Practitioner Reflection:

Writing for the Courts: Attending to Settler Colonialism, Senses, Social Algorithm, and Neurodiversity on a Gladue Writing Team
Michelle Stewart, Robyn Pitawanakwat, Elisabeth Girard, and Rouhullah Mohammadi.....117

Research Note:

Excavating Toxic Colonial Violence and Resistance at the Dump: A Research Note On Sensory Method and Analysis
Anita Lam and Steven Kohm.....142